FINDINGS AND DECISION OF THE REGISTRY COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN SADDLEBRED REGISTRY

RE: Debbie Foley v. Michael Curry
Tuesday, June 20, 2017

For his violation of Registry Rules, Michael Curry has been placed on probation during the 2018 breeding season, during which time he must strictly comply with Registry Rules and Regulations, including his duties as a breeder and seller of horses and/or horse semen. Mr. Curry's probation shall begin on February 1, 2018 and shall run through July 31, 2018.

Michael Curry has also been censured and fined the sum of $25,000 to be paid to the Registry's office by August 17, 2017. Should said fine not be paid by August 17, 2017, Mr. Curry and any horses owned by him will automatically be deemed not in good standing and will immediately be suspended from taking any part whatsoever in business or activities of any kind with the American Saddlebred Registry, until such time as the fine is paid in full.

Update, Effective August 18, 2017

As of this date, Michael Curry is hereby deemed not in good standing and is immediately suspended from taking any part whatsoever in business, or activities of any kind with the American Saddlebred Registry until such time as the outstanding fine is paid in full.
